You'll love this property at Jelbart Road just off Jindera Gap.....

You only have to drive a few minutes from Albury to be in the country so you get the best of both worlds. When you come to the front gate immediately you are in a peaceful place of native bush. Being a 300 m drive down the road to the house block means there is no traffic noise and you are in a world of your own looking over the landscape of Jindera with a beautiful north face. The block has been assessed by vegetation officers from the Murray CMA and rated as having high biodiversity - including such residences as over 21 native bird species, lace monitor, antichinus, echidna and a mob of kangaroos. The place is
